

If you could have a magical power like Elphaba, what would you do with it?

If you had to pick one character from Wicked to be your best friend, who would it be and why?

What's your favorite song from the movie?

If you could swap lives with any character from the movie for a day, who would it be?

What would your "Glinda the Good" look like if you had to create a character version of yourself?

What's your favorite line or quote from the movie?

If you were a flying monkey, where would you go first?

What do you think it would be like to ride a broomstick like Elphaba? Would you be scared, or would you love it?